

Local Matters.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.
LOST NOT TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.—
Wednesday Evening, August 21, '59.
Arrivals and Departures of Trains.
MORNING AND NIGHT TRAINS arrive at 8:30 A. M. and 8:30 P. M.
Evening and Night Trains arrive at 7:30 A. M. and 4:30 P. M. Depart at 5:30 A. M. and 4:30 P. M.
ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES.—Trains arrive at 10:30 A. M. Depart at 2:30 P. M.
Mr. T. J. Hodges, of the LaGrange (Tenn.) Monitor, is in the city.

The Kansas Family gave their final concert in this city last evening.

We regret to learn that Mr. F. N. Paul, the bookseller, is confined to his room by a painful illness.

CIRCUS AND MESSAGERS.—Eldest's great circus and messagers will be exhibited on the chain-penning by the Readers yesterday for a sum of $1000, and the charge of vagrancy.

ILL-TREATMENT OF A FEMALE.—A mulatto named Hagar Divine was for a small sum by Esquire Horne yesterday, while treating a female.

HIRELLES.—Mr. Almon, Master of this house, was married to Miss Mary H. Hassell, of Hartman's county, in Somerville yesterday.

VIOLENT ASSAULT.—A warrant was issued by Esquire Horne yesterday against Peter Hartness, who it is alleged, made an assault upon a woman intent to kill.

YESTERDAY.—High Dotey was fined forty dollars by the Board of Health, on three separate charges, including disorderly conduct and carrying concealed weapons.

PEACE MEETING.—Religious services will be held in the Christian Church, corner of Linds and St. Patrick streets, every evening of the present week. Mr. J. B. McGowen, of the First Church, has arranged for the service to be held in the Tabernacle.

OVERLAND MAIL.—The Overland mail from California, which left San Franconia on the 2d inst., arrived at this city yesterday.

MESSRS. CHAS. A. MORTON & CO.—An application was filed in the Circuit Court, on the 2d instant, for a writ of habeas corpus, an equitable writ, as follows: Plaintiff, Chas. A. Morton, and named them, Mrs. Weston Nasl, seek the fate of editorial paragraphs sometime. These petitions are still in the hands of the court, and the cause is referred to the attorney for the state.

BURGLARY AND INSURANCE.—A burglar forced an entrance through the door of J. L. Williamson & Co., on Madison street, near Main, Monday night, and robbed the cash drawer of the sum of twenty-five dollars.

187. There were twelve delinquents before the Recorder yesterday, four of whom were sent to the chain-gang.

The time amounted to one hundred dollars.

ATTORNEY'S.—August 1, 1859.

French John, South-Hill-Kennedy, to his Honor, the friend, Thos. James Fife, Head

Gardner of Court Square.

John C. Moore, of the firm of Moore & Moore, to his Honor, the friend, Thos. James Fife, did not injure you to take the hindmost, but the day before yesterday, I was intended to be paid by a wagon driver, yesterday, who will pay me.

The Interchange, having been handsomely restored, arrived from Louisville Monday night, with a very heavy freight, and was loaded.

The steamer from Cincinnati has a large amount of freight and an unusual number

of passengers, among her freight were two

large tons of tobacco and other packages.

Capt. W. H. Williams, of the steamer St. Francis No. 1, is a visit to Louisville.

Capt. Roberts, of the Samson and Videl, was engaged in unloading and loading, and soon was the pleasure of a quiet life in this city.

Capt. Williams, the purchaser of the steamer Philadelphia, had a transaction with the steamer, Whipple & Morris, the attractive clerks, for favors.

Capt. Williams, of the steamer St. Francis No. 1, is a visit to Louisville.

Capt. Roberts, of the Samson and Videl, was engaged in unloading and loading, and soon was the pleasure of a quiet life in this city.

Capt. Williams, the purchaser of the steamer Philadelphia, had a transaction with the steamer, Whipple & Morris, the attractive clerks, for favors.

The Interchange, having been handsomely restored, arrived from Louisville Monday night, with a very heavy freight, and was loaded.

The steamer from Cincinnati has a large amount of freight and an unusual number

of passengers, among her freight were two

large tons of tobacco and other packages.

Capt. W. H. Williams, of the steamer St. Francis No. 1, is a visit to Louisville.

Capt. Roberts, of the Samson and Videl, was engaged in unloading and loading, and soon was the pleasure of a quiet life in this city.

Capt. Williams, the purchaser of the steamer Philadelphia, had a transaction with the steamer, Whipple & Morris, the attractive clerks, for favors.

The Interchange, having been handsomely restored, arrived from Louisville Monday night, with a very heavy freight, and was loaded.

The steamer from Cincinnati has a large amount of freight and an unusual number

of passengers, among her freight were two

large tons of tobacco and other packages.

Capt. Williams, of the steamer St. Francis No. 1, is a visit to Louisville.

Capt. Roberts, of the Samson and Videl, was engaged in unloading and loading, and soon was the pleasure of a quiet life in this city.

Capt. Williams, the purchaser of the steamer Philadelphia, had a transaction with the steamer, Whipple & Morris, the attractive clerks, for favors.

The Interchange, having been handsomely restored, arrived from Louisville Monday night, with a very heavy freight, and was loaded.

The steamer from Cincinnati has a large amount of freight and an unusual number

of passengers, among her freight were two

large tons of tobacco and other packages.

Capt. W. H. Williams, of the steamer St. Francis No. 1, is a visit to Louisville.

Capt. Roberts, of the Samson and Videl, was engaged in unloading and loading, and soon was the pleasure of a quiet life in this city.

Capt. Williams, the purchaser of the steamer Philadelphia, had a transaction with the steamer, Whipple & Morris, the attractive clerks, for favors.

The Interchange, having been handsomely restored, arrived from Louisville Monday night, with a very heavy freight, and was loaded.

The steamer from Cincinnati has a large amount of freight and an unusual number

of passengers, among her freight were two

large tons of tobacco and other packages.

Capt. Williams, of the steamer St. Francis No. 1, is a visit to Louisville.

Capt. Roberts, of the Samson and Videl, was engaged in unloading and loading, and soon was the pleasure of a quiet life in this city.

Capt. Williams, the purchaser of the steamer Philadelphia, had a transaction with the steamer, Whipple & Morris, the attractive clerks, for favors.

The Interchange, having been handsomely restored, arrived from Louisville Monday night, with a very heavy freight, and was loaded.

The steamer from Cincinnati has a large amount of freight and an unusual number

of passengers, among her freight were two

large tons of tobacco and other packages.

Capt. Williams, of the steamer St. Francis No. 1, is a visit to Louisville.

Capt. Roberts, of the Samson and Videl, was engaged in unloading and loading, and soon was the pleasure of a quiet life in this city.

Capt. Williams, the purchaser of the steamer Philadelphia, had a transaction with the steamer, Whipple & Morris, the attractive clerks, for favors.

The Interchange, having been handsomely restored, arrived from Louisville Monday night, with a very heavy freight, and was loaded.

The steamer from Cincinnati has a large amount of freight and an unusual number

of passengers, among her freight were two

large tons of tobacco and other packages.

Capt. Williams, of the steamer St. Francis No. 1, is a visit to Louisville.

Capt. Roberts, of the Samson and Videl, was engaged in unloading and loading, and soon was the pleasure of a quiet life in this city.

Capt. Williams, the purchaser of the steamer Philadelphia, had a transaction with the steamer, Whipple & Morris, the attractive clerks, for favors.

The Interchange, having been handsomely restored, arrived from Louisville Monday night, with a very heavy freight, and was loaded.

The steamer from Cincinnati has a large amount of freight and an unusual number

of passengers, among her freight were two

large tons of tobacco and other packages.

Capt. Williams, of the steamer St. Francis No. 1, is a visit to Louisville.

Capt. Roberts, of the Samson and Videl, was engaged in unloading and loading, and soon was the pleasure of a quiet life in this city.

Capt. Williams, the purchaser of the steamer Philadelphia, had a transaction with the steamer, Whipple & Morris, the attractive clerks, for favors.

The Interchange, having been handsomely restored, arrived from Louisville Monday night, with a very heavy freight, and was loaded.

The steamer from Cincinnati has a large amount of freight and an unusual number

of passengers, among her freight were two

large tons of tobacco and other packages.

Capt. Williams, of the steamer St. Francis No. 1, is a visit to Louisville.

Capt. Roberts, of the Samson and Videl, was engaged in unloading and loading, and soon was the pleasure of a quiet life in this city.

Capt. Williams, the purchaser of the steamer Philadelphia, had a transaction with the steamer, Whipple & Morris, the attractive clerks, for favors.

The Interchange, having been handsomely restored, arrived from Louisville Monday night, with a very heavy freight, and was loaded.

The steamer from Cincinnati has a large amount of freight and an unusual number

of passengers, among her freight were two

large tons of tobacco and other packages.

Capt. Williams, of the steamer St. Francis No. 1, is a visit to Louisville.

Capt. Roberts, of the Samson and Videl, was engaged in unloading and loading, and soon was the pleasure of a quiet life in this city.

Capt. Williams, the purchaser of the steamer Philadelphia, had a transaction with the steamer, Whipple & Morris, the attractive clerks, for favors.

The Interchange, having been handsomely restored, arrived from Louisville Monday night, with a very heavy freight, and was loaded.

The steamer from Cincinnati has a large amount of freight and an unusual number

of passengers, among her freight were two

large tons of tobacco and other packages.

Capt. Williams, of the steamer St. Francis No. 1, is a visit to Louisville.

Capt. Roberts, of the Samson and Videl, was engaged in unloading and loading, and soon was the pleasure of a quiet life in this city.

Capt. Williams, the purchaser of the steamer Philadelphia, had a transaction with the steamer, Whipple & Morris, the attractive clerks, for favors.

The Interchange, having been handsomely restored, arrived from Louisville Monday night, with a very heavy freight, and was loaded.

The steamer from Cincinnati has a large amount of freight and an unusual number

of passengers, among her freight were two

large tons of tobacco and other packages.

Capt. Williams, of the steamer St. Francis No. 1, is a visit to Louisville.

Capt. Roberts, of the Samson and Videl, was engaged in unloading and loading, and soon was the pleasure of a quiet life in this city.

Capt. Williams, the purchaser of the steamer Philadelphia, had a transaction with the steamer, Whipple & Morris, the attractive clerks, for favors.

The Interchange, having been handsomely restored, arrived from Louisville Monday night, with a very heavy freight, and was loaded.

The steamer from Cincinnati has a large amount of freight and an unusual number

of passengers, among her freight were two

large tons of tobacco and other packages.

Capt. Williams, of the steamer St. Francis No. 1, is a visit to Louisville.

Capt. Roberts, of the Samson and Videl, was engaged in unloading and loading, and soon was the pleasure of a quiet life in this city.

Capt. Williams, the purchaser of the steamer Philadelphia, had a transaction with the steamer, Whipple & Morris, the attractive clerks, for favors.

The Interchange, having been handsomely restored, arrived from Louisville Monday night, with a very heavy freight, and was loaded.

The steamer from Cincinnati has a large amount of freight and an unusual number

of passengers, among her freight were two

large tons of tobacco and other packages.

Capt. Williams, of the steamer St. Francis No. 1, is a visit to Louisville.

Capt. Roberts, of the Samson and Videl, was engaged in unloading and loading, and soon was the pleasure of a quiet life in this city.

Capt. Williams, the purchaser of the steamer Philadelphia, had a transaction with the steamer, Whipple & Morris, the attractive clerks, for favors.

The Interchange, having been handsomely restored, arrived from Louisville Monday night, with a very heavy freight, and was loaded.

The steamer from Cincinnati has a large amount of freight and an unusual number

of passengers, among her freight were two large tons of tobacco and other packages.</p